

KURT HAHN TRUST APPLICATION FORM

Awards to German Students 2025-26

The Trustees of the Kurt Hahn Trust invite applications for Kurt Hahn Scholarships for the academical year 2025-26. The Scholarships are intended to assist students of German nationality, or who are domiciled resident or normally resident in Germany to pursue graduate studies at the University of Cambridge. Scholars will be required to become candidates for a Cambridge degree and should be based in Cambridge for the majority of the academical year. Candidates should note that the Postgraduate Admissions Office's usual deadline for applications for a research degree is 31 March in any year.

The value of the Kurt Hahn Scholarships is £3,000. This is intended to be a contribution towards maintenance costs and does not cover the cost of University or College fees. Scholarships are tenable for one year only and cannot be postponed to another year. Applicants should note that they are eligible for a Kurt Hahn Scholarship only once during their lifetime; unsuccessful applicants may reapply for funding in subsequent years.

Academic merit will not be the sole consideration: evidence of more than usual enterprise, breadth of interest, and social awareness will also be considered.

This form must be typed and hand written applications cannot be accepted. Alternative formats of this form can be obtained from kurthahntrust@admin.cam.ac.uk

Once completed, this form and a CV should be returned to kurthahntrust@admin.cam.ac.uk by 17th March 2025. Letters of support from two academic referees must also reach us by this date.
