Student visa Nationality changes outside the UK

Changes to nationality – outside the UK

- This document is intended to provide guidance to University of Cambridge students on the process to reflect changes in nationality to UKVI.
- It has been prepared by the University's International Student Office using screen shots from the Home Office website.
- Students are advised to read this guidance as well as UKVI guidance prior to making an application.
- If you are outside the UK and have changed your nationality you must apply for a BRP replacement single entry visa before returning to the country. This will allow you to enter the UK with your new passport.
- Once you have returned to the UK you will need to apply for a new BRP to reflect your nationality change and need to do this within 3 months of returning. Instructions on how to do this can be found here: <https://www.internationalstudents.cam.ac.uk/name-and-nationality-changes>

Changes to nationality – outside the UK

Apply for a replacement biometric residence permit visa, or to transfer or replace your visa (vignette) in your passport or travel document

Use this form if you are outside the UK and you need:

- a replacement biometric residence permit (BRP) visa because your BRP has been lost or stolen (this lets you re-enter the UK once within one month of issue)
- to transfer your visa (vignette) to a new passport or travel document
- to replace your visa (vignette) because your name or personal details in your existing passport have changed
- to replace your visa (vignette) because your previous visa has expired (this lets you re-enter the UK once within one month of issue)

This is the relevant option to your circumstances.
